

DRAFT AGENDA

Meeting with NGOs on supervision of execution of ECHR judgments
Strasbourg, 16 November 2012
Human Rights Building – Meeting room RJ (Seminar Room)

- 9.30 a.m.      Introductory remarks
James A. Goldston, Executive Director, Open Society Justice Initiative
- 9.45 a.m.      Committee of Ministers’ supervision procedure
Mr Joachim Holzenberger, Deputy Permanent Representative, Germany Permanent Representation
Ms Geneviève Mayer, Director, Department for the Execution of ECHR Judgments
Prof. Philp Leach, Director, European Human Rights Advocacy Center
Prof Antonio Bultrini, Florence University
- Panel presentations and discussion on the supervision of execution of ECHR judgments by the Committee of Ministers. The perspective of the Execution Department, the Court, Member States, academics and civil society will be heard on the new “twin-track” procedure, on the execution of judgments’ website, the follow-up to Brighton Declaration and cooperation with other Council of Europe monitoring bodies.
- 11.15 a.m.      Coffee break
- 11.30 a.m.      Civil society participation in the monitoring of execution of judgments
Prof. Elisabeth Lambert-Abdelgawad, Director of Research at CNRS
Ms Kate Jones, Deputy Permanent Representative, UK Permanent Representation
Ms Dominika Bychawska, Project Coordinator, Polish Helsinki Foundation for Human Rights
Representative of European Group of National Human Rights Institutions (TBC)
- Panel presentations and discussion will explore ways in which the civil society can engage more systematically in the monitoring of execution of judgments with the Committee of Ministers and at the national level. This will include guidance on Rule 9 communications, information-sharing regarding CM-DH meetings and the role of national human rights institutions.
- 13.00 p.m.      Closing remarks (TBA)
- 13.15 p.m.      End of the meeting - Lunch